PROGRAM INFORMATION

The MS to PhD in nursing prepares scholars, leaders, and faculty for research and knowledge development in nursing science and practice. Offered full-time or part-time on the LLU campus, the program uses distance learning strategies, with courses during the academic year delivered in a hybrid format. Students complete online coursework and attend one-week, on-campus intensive sessions each quarter, scheduled well in advance for planning. Areas of focus include Vulnerable Populations/Health Disparities, Health/Wellness/Wholeness, and Health Systems, with faculty mentors available for dissertation support. Core, elective, and research courses are offered at LLU, while specialty courses may be taken through the *NEXus partnership or other universities (subject to transfer unit limits). The program accommodates adult learners and can be completed in 4 years full-time or 7 years part-time.

**NEXus (Nursing Education Xchange) is a partnership among select Western Institute of Nursing institutions to facilitate enrollment in doctoral courses not available on your home campus. Through NEXus, the institutions have identified courses that are available at a distance and open for enrollments from partner institutions. Visit <http://winnexus.org> for more information*
