PROGRAM INFORMATION

The BS to PhD degree in nursing prepares nurse scholars, leaders, and faculty to engage in knowledge development and research relevant to nursing science and practice. Offered full-time or part-time on the LLU campus, it uses distance learning strategies with courses taken during the academic year through a “hybrid” model. Students complete online courses and attend one-week, on-campus sessions each quarter, scheduled well in advance. Those interested in Vulnerable Populations/ Health Disparities, Health/Wellness/Wholeness, and Health Systems will find strong faculty mentors. Core courses, electives, and research methods are available on campus, with specialty courses offered through the *NEXus partnership or other universities (some transfer limits apply). After completing coursework, students take an oral comprehensive exam before starting the dissertation. Designed for adult learners, the program can be completed in 5 years full-time or 7 years part-time.

*NEXus (Nursing Education Xchange) is a partnership among select Western Institute of Nursing institutions to facilitate enrollment in doctoral courses not available on your home campus. Through NEXus, the institutions have identified courses that are available at a distance and open for enrollments from partner institutions. Visit <https://winnexus.org> for more information.
